

John Fallon Introduction:

Our speaker today is a highly successful speaker, presenter, coach, actor, author, musician and educator. John Fallon is a dynamic speaker with an extensive background in working with diverse audiences. He is well-versed in speaking to the most challenging of audiences and bringing about positive outcomes!

John's mission is to empower his audience with the wherewithal to be the best version of themselves they can be! With humor and wit, John engages his audience with his messages on creating presentations that are experiences and presenters that become "Rock Stars". He has addressed the needs of teachers, community organizations, corporations, and individuals for over thirty years!

John is also a sought after trainer for his program "Designing 'Rock Star Presentations'" and is the author of several books on Presentation Skills, "Presentation Tips for Administrators", "Presentation Technology Tips for Administrators" and "Teaching Presentation Skills". From keynotes to break out sessions, many audiences seek John Fallon to provide critical information and insight that changes hearts, minds and bottom lines.

John holds three degrees and is also a member of notable organizations such as the National Speakers Association. He has presented his insight on platforms from California to New York. Please welcome our speaker... John Fallon!!!